"Our front stands against both Left and Right. ... from two directions we must ward off attackers who also fight one another. The Reds scream at us as reactionaries, and to the reactionaries we are bolsheviks. From both sides the Jew directs the attack on us."

DIETRICH ECKART, Bolshevism from Moses to Lenin.

EDITORIAL

Most National Socialists have looked upon the increasing dissolution of society and breakdown of order as a necessary prerequisite to a National Socialist revolution which can re-establish society on a new basis and build a New Order. We have applauded silently, even while shaking our heads in dsapproval, at every new riot, bombing, or jump in crime statistics.

Now, while the long-term trend certainly will not reverse itself, there are always jiggles in the graph. Political action by the Left eventually evokes a reaction from even the great, passive masses of the Middle. This usually takes the form of a great hustle and bustle about "restoring law and order" or "fighting subversion" or something of the sort. Sometimes such a reaction will last for two or three years before the citizenry once again settles down into an inert stupor.

In the United States we witnessed such a reaction in the early 1950's; it was called "the McCarthy era." Another reaction is beginning to set in now.

The unfortunate thing about these reactions is that they are blind and stupid rather than planned and rational. They may burn the Jews' fingers, for they are nearly always xenophobic to a greater or lesser extent, but they may also hurt us severely.

Thus, a period of reaction can offer certain opportunities for growth of the Movement, but it can also offer Jewry and its allies an opportunity to damage us. When the public is fed up with "outside agitators" and "revolutionaries" its wrath can as easily be directed at us as at the Reds. And to the extent that that wrath can be directed at all, the Jews are presently in a much better position to direct it than we are.

That, I'm afraid, is the way Canada's new "hate-propaganda" law came about. At a time when the people are very nervous about interracial tensions, practically any law which is against "incitement" will be accepted. We are certainly in for similar measures in the United States, and perhaps elsewhere, in the near future.

Since we cannot meekly acquiesce to efforts to muzzle or outlaw the Movement, we are forced thereby to a certain amount of illegal activity, which in turn can make us even more a target of any temporary reaction.

So let us not be too quick to rejoice in the face of the current "hardhat" demonstrations or other signs of a reaction against the Left. We should instead brace ourselves for more "hate-propaganda" laws.

CNSP and NSWPP Merge

On June 18 the Canadian National Socialist Party was formally dissolved by its National Leader, Mr. John Beattie, in consultation with WUNS HQ.

All former CNSP members may immediately become members of the National Socialist White People's Party by submitting completed application forms with their first month's dues of $5 to WUNS HQ. The customary application fee and interview are waived.

All former CNSP supporters are invited to become Official Supporters of the NSWPP by submitting completed application forms with their initial contributions to WUNS HQ.

Both Official Supporter and Membership application forms are available from WUNS HQ upon request.

Henceforth, the National Socialist White People's Party will be the sole National Socialist party for North America. No other group is authorized to act in North America for the Movement, and all contributions, membership dues, and orders for the purchase of propaganda materials should be sent only to WUNS HQ.

Jews Impose Canadian Thought Control

With the recent success of the Canadian Jewish Congress in ramming the so-called "hate-propaganda" law through both houses of the Canadian Parliament, Canadian citizens lost a very substantial portion of their freedom of speech.

The new Canadian law goes far beyond even the notorious British Race Relations Act of 1965. It sets a penalty of five years imprisonment for anyone who "advocates or promotes": (a) the killing of members of any racial, religious, or ethnic group, or (b) inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its destruction.

It furthermore sets a penalty of two years imprisonment for anyone who "incites" or "promotes" hatred against any group through any means of "communicating statements." "Statements" are defined to include "words spoken or written or recorded electronically or electromagnetically or otherwise, and gestures, signs or other visible representations." "Communicating" is defined to include "communicating by telephone, broadcasting, or other audible or visible means."

Finally, the law authorizes the government to confiscate all books, newspapers, and other printed material deemed by any Canadian court to contain "hate propaganda."

Although the law specifically states that, "No person shall be convicted of an offense ... if he establishes that the statements communicated were true," it is plain that the burden of proof rests upon the accused, not the government. A Canadian citizen who publicly charges Jews with atrocities against the Palestinian people, for example, can be arrested and prosecuted under the new law. In order to avoid conviction, he must then produce evidence which will prove to the court that his charges are completely factual. If he cannot afford a bail bond, he will have to dig up his evidence while confined to jail prior to his trial.

Swiss Choose National Suicide

In Switzerland one resident in six is a foreigner. In the Swiss labor force the situation is even worse, with foreigners—nearly all from Spain and southern Italy—holding one-third of all positions.

Just as in Germany, profit-hungry Swiss industrialists have deliberately promoted the immigration of alien workers to supply much-needed manpower for their booming factories, with no thought for the national or racial consequences. And, with a substantial portion of these immigrant workers reflecting the largely Mediterranean or other non-Aryan makeup of the lower social classes of Italy and Spain, the consequences are racial as well as national.

Many racially conscious Swiss citizens have long been aware of the dangers inherent in this flood of southern immigrants. Early in June they had an opportunity to act, when a referendum was presented to the Swiss electorate which, if accepted, would have resulted in the expulsion of a substantial portion of the alien population.

The liberal and Jewish press launched the expected hysterical campaign against the referendum, warning of the horrors of "racism" and "Hitlerism."

The press poison did its work, and when the votes were counted enough were found on the "respectable" side of the issue to defeat the referendum by a narrow margin. The flood of aliens into Switzerland will continue.

British Race Woes Growing

"This is no longer England, sir; they're taking over." This poignant comment by an English shopkeeper in Wolverhampton, a formerly English city in the Midlands now swarming with Indians, Pakistanis, and Jamaicans, expresses the feelings of every true Englishman today.

In Wolverhampton there are already schools which are 80 per cent colored, with English children unable to gain admission because of overcrowding by immigrants. Educational and moral standards are falling and crime is rising. And what is true in Wolverhampton is also true in a dozen other cities.

The response of Prime Minister Harold Wilson and the Labor Party to these problems has been what one would expect: they have chosen a Negro to represent Labor in one racially mixed urban district which will be voting in the Parliamentary elections June 18. If Labor wins in that district, as expected, the House of Commons will have its first Black member. He can then hold hands with the West Indian cricket player who was made a baron of the realm and appointed to the House of Lords last year by Queen Elizabeth.

A Black baron may sound like a sick joke, but even sicker is the British ruling class which has made grim reality of such jokes.
